BIOGRAPHY

Brian J. Kuester served as the presidentially nominated and U.S. Senate confirmed U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Oklahoma and, previously, as the elected and re-elected District Attorney of Oklahoma's 27th District.

U.S. Attorney

Mr. Kuester led the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Oklahoma as the district's chief federal law enforcement officer.

In that role, he oversaw all civil, criminal, and appellate proceedings, Department of Justice prosecutions, and the investigations of all federal agencies, including the FBI, DEA, ATF, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Office of Inspector General, the IRS, and the Department of Homeland Security.

District Attorney

Before accepting his nomination as a U.S. Attorney, Mr. Kuester served as the well-respected and overwhelmingly reelected District Attorney of Oklahoma's 27th District.

In that capacity, he was the chief law enforcement officer in the four-county district, overseeing prosecutions and investigations conducted by state and local law enforcement agencies within the district.

Client Services

Mr. Kuester offers his extensive experience to counsel companies and individuals under civil or criminal government investigation.

His knowledge and insight of how federal and state agency investigations progress, the strategies government agencies use to investigate and prosecute, and his ability to effectively communicate with prosecutors, may give clients a decisive advantage when their future and financial stability could be in jeopardy. When resolution requires litigation, clients choose Mr. Kuester's proven court and litigation experience.
