BIOGRAPHY

Jeffrey S. Howell defends medical providers and healthcare business owners against investigations from regulatory agencies and professional licensing boards throughout the state of Florida.

Tallahassee Location

Conveniently located just steps away from the Florida Board of Medicine in Tallahassee, Florida, with a satellite location in Orlando, Florida, Mr. Howell offers healthcare clients accused of malpractice, involved in employment disputes, or subject to licensing investigation three decades of experience before the Florida Board of Medicine, the Florida Board of Nursing, the Florida Board of Psychology, the Florida Board of Physical Therapy, and other professional boards all located in the state's capital of Tallahassee.

Florida Medical Board

Mr. Howell dedicates his practice to advising physicians, nurses, physical therapists, chiropractors, mental health care providers, and other medical providers with respect to safeguarding, obtaining, re-obtaining, and defending their respective professional licenses.

These services include appearances before the various boards, defending against administrative complaints, resolving patient complaints, overcoming criminal background checks, as well as providing expedited help against emergency suspension orders.

Healthcare Law Advice

Together with his law firm partner, former Assistant General Counsel for the Florida Department of Health, Rickey L. Strong, Mr. Howell offers healthcare providers and facilities competent compliance advice with respect to Florida's Health Care Clinic Act and other pertinent healthcare regulations.
